

Authentic Relationships Work Exchange Program

KRI Courses happen as a community. We rely on the efforts, skill and selfless service of participants in order to make the course run smoothly. All Work Exchange recipients work with the course coordinator to fulfill the duties outlined below and to make sure the course is a success.

If you are interested in work exchange please send an email to:

level2@kriteaching.org. Include in the email the following information:

- *Name, contact information
- *If you've attended any KRI courses in the past
- *Which position your interested in and why.
- *If you have particular skills in relationship to the position (if applicable)

Available Positions

*Note positions with non-conflicting duties may be combined. (Ex: You could be on the setup crew AND be the classroom assistant)

*Dollar amount listed will be deducted from course fees.
